Subject: Retirement of Creston Resident Deputy John McKenny

The Creston Advisory Body congratulates San Luis Obispo County Sheriff Deputy John McKinney on his honorable retirement from service to the county.

Moreover, the Creston Advisory Body especially wishes to express its heartfelt appreciation to Deputy McKenny for the eleven (11) years of outstanding service that he has provided to the Creston Community, while performing as the Creston Resident Deputy.

Deputy McKenny's tireless service, has without a doubt, made Creston a safer place to live, work and visit.

The Creston Advisory Body would also like to thank Deputy McKinney for his participation in the monthly Advisory Body Meetings. Deputy McKinney's regular reports on the calls for service in Creston helped to maintain and heightened state of awareness for not only the Creston Advisory Board Members, but the Creston community as a whole.

The Creston Advisory Body wishes Deputy McKenny much happiness in his retirement and extends a warm invitation for him to continue attending the Creston Advisory Body Meetings, where he will always be welcome.

Sincerely,

Sheila Lyons, Chairperson Creston Advisory Body AND ALL the CAB members Thomas Edel, Don Clark, Kurt Almond, Mike Aarons, Roy Barba, Matt Lynge and Jim Wortner
